The Royal Tradition of India

The Ancient tradition of hookah originated in the north western provinces of Rajasthan & Gujarat in India almost a thousand years ago. Hookah smoking was a more of an institution than leisure and delight for the Royal Kings in these provinces.

Today Hookahs have spread across the world, and has become symbol of pride and honour amongst the youth.

Inheriting both the traditional & youth culture Arabian Nights offers a wide array of premium designer hookahs which are artistically crafted and sourced across the country.
